

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS

1. (Cancelled)

2. (Cancelled)

3. (Currently Amended) A ~~The~~ transparent grip of a golf club as defined in Claim 2, formed to enclose a circumferential end of a shaft of the golf club, wherein said grip comprises:

a sheet layer of an elastomeric material to increase the gripping and hitting sense and to alleviate shock by covering the entire or a part of the circumference of the shaft, a transparent layer or shell, said layer or shell being transparent enough to permeate the light so as to make the sheet layer visible or identifiable from the outside, and;

a coating film layer between the sheet layer and the transparent shell to protect the sheet layer, wherein a surface of the coating film layer (30) is formed, on its surface, with includes a number of fine projections thereon ~~by pressing correspondingly the surface of the coating film layer(30).~~

4. (Currently Amended) The transparent grip of a golf club as defined in Claim ~~2~~ 3, wherein the transparent shell ~~(40)~~ is made of at least one of the group consisting of polyurethane resin; synthetic rubber(EPDM) composed of the mixture of ethylene, propylene and non-conjugated diene; synthetic rubber composed of EPDM added further with the styrene-butadiene-rubber, dioctylphthalate and natural rubber; or the ethylene-vinylacetate-copolymer(EVA).

5. (Currently Amended) The transparent grip of a golf club as defined in Claim 4, wherein the transparent shell(40) is further includes a perfume.

